ホーム・ビル&インテリアWEEK

Joint exhibition with Japan Home & Building Show

Organized by Nippon Interior Fabrics Association / Japan Management Association

The 32nd
JAPANTEX2013
 INTERIOR TREND SHOW

As of 2012, with the title of “Home Building & Interior Week”, the Interior Trend Show—JAPANTEX is being held jointly with The Japan Home & Building Show, a specialized exhibition of home-building materials and equipment. The first joint show was attended by 33,372 people.

Holding the two exhibitions together as Home Building & Interior Week revitalizes both JAPANTEX and the Japan Home & Building Show and strengthens their appeal to the housing, architectural, and interior design industries.

■ Why a Joint Exhibition?

Getting a stronger message across to related industries

The Japan Home & Building Show targeted the housing and architectural industries while JAPANTEX concentrated on interior design. Combining the two strengthens the message they convey to a wider field.

Benefit of Visitors

Holding the two jointly means they cover unsupported area of each other and provide visitors with a full line of products from housing structural components to interior design materials.

Benefit of Exhibitors

Simultaneously holding exhibitions targeting related industries facilitates acquisition of new clients and increases business negotiations by attracting about 40 thousand specialists in housing, architecture, and interior design.

■ Home, Building & Interior Week Floor Plan

Japan Home & Building Show 2013 The 32nd JAPANTEX 2013 INTERIOR TREND SHOW

Japan Home & Building Show 2013

With a history of 35 previous showings and their achievements, The Japan Home & Building Show is a specialized exhibition of building materials, home equipment, design and computer-aided design, and exterior products. It displays building materials, components, and equipment for everything from detached houses to apartment blocks. In 2012, 17,340 specialists from design offices, building contractors, house builders, power builders, general contractors, and sub-contractors attended.

JAPANTEX2013 General Exhibition Rules

1 Application to Exhibit

Those who wish to join the Exhibition are asked to submit to Nippon Interior Fabrics Association by fax, the application form in accordance with the application procedure described in the said form after agreeing to observe these exhibition rules.

2 Payment of Exhibition Fee

Exhibitors shall pay their full Exhibition Fee by the date specified in the Exhibition Fee Invoice. If the payment is not confirmed by the organizer by the specified date, the organizer has the right to cancel the exhibitor's application.

3 Alteration and Cancellation of Application

Any cancellation or alteration (reduction) in the size of exhibit space must be submitted in writing expressing the reason. Cancellations or alterations made after the application has been accepted are subject to the following fees (calculated as to date written notification received) :

Until Aug 1 (Thu), 2013	50% of the exhibition fee
From Aug 2 (Fri), 2013	100% of the exhibition fee

Any exhibitor who fails to pay the amount equal to that set forth in paragraph above of this article at the time of alteration or cancellation shall pay said amount immediately.

If the sum paid at the time of alteration or cancellation exceeds the relevant amount set forth above, the organizer shall refund the excess amount to the exhibitor.

4 Prohibition of Booth Subleasing

Exhibitors are prohibited to sublease, sell, exchange, or assign their booth without the organizer's specific approval.

5 Booth Allocation

Booth allocation shall be determined by the organizer. Exhibitors cannot object to the allocation once it is determined. The organizer reserves the right to change the booth allocation after announcement. If any exhibitor wishes to cancel its exhibit due to dissatisfaction with the booth allocation, the normal procedure for cancellation in payment of the prescribed cancellation fee will be required. The exhibitor cannot claim for compensation due to change of booth allocation.

6 Use of Booth

- (1) All publicity and sales activities by exhibitors must be performed within their own booth. Activities using the areas outside the booth shall be prohibited. In conducting publicity activities, exhibitors will be responsible for not causing congestion of the aisles around their booth.
- (2) Where booths are adjacent to each other, exhibitors shall agree not to arrange their booth displays or decorations in such manner as to interfere with the adjacent booths. Should any exhibitor of the adjacent booth make a claim, the organizer will determine whether it is necessary to change the booth arrangement in view of management of the exhibition. If the organizer determines it to be necessary, the exhibitor must comply with the decision and change the booth arrangement.
- (3) The organizer reserves the right to restrict displays that are considered to have problems due to their sound, operational methods, materials, or any other reasons and to ban or remove exhibits not suitable for the purpose of the exhibition from the viewpoint of the organizer.

7 Management of Exhibits and Indemnity

Individual exhibitors shall take full responsibility for the management and security /safety of exhibits and activities held within their booth, and the organizer shall be indemnified and held harmless from and against any losses or damages arising out of any causes whatsoever.

8 Application Termination

The organizer may terminate the exhibition application in case the exhibitor falls under any of the following cases:

- the Exhibition Fee has not been paid by the specified date;
- the Exhibitor violates the provisions of articles 6 concerning the use of booth, etc. and does not obey the instructions issued by the Organizer regarding correction thereof;
- any other cases in which serious trouble is deemed likely to affect the normal and smooth management of the exhibition.

9 Compensation for Damages

Exhibitors shall compensate damages to the facilities of the site or the building of the exhibition, or bodily Injuries due to or arising from negligence of fault on their own part or by their agents.

10 Cancellation of the Exhibition

The organizer may postpone or cancel the Exhibition because of natural disasters such as earthquake, fire, etc. or any causes beyond its control. If the Exhibition is cancelled, the Exhibition Fee will be refunded to each exhibitor after deducting costs incurred. Other than such refund, no other compensation will be provided by the organizer.

11 Observance of the Rules

Exhibitors shall deem a series of regulations set forth by the organizer as part of these Exhibition Rules, and agree to observe them. Moreover, exhibitors shall understand that all said rules and regulations are intended to protect the benefit and well-being of the exhibition and agree to abide by them.

12 Copyright Protection

If product designs or textile patterns are copied illegally, they can not be displayed.

13 Protection of novelty (invention)

Inventions in articles on display in the JAPANTEX2013 (excluding those which have become public being announced on the Japanese and foreign patent gazettes) are eligible for application of the provision concerning exception to lack of novelty of invention (Patent Law). In addition, exhibitors of articles on display in the JAPANTEX2013 are entitled to claim the special provisions concerning time of filing of application for trademark (Trademark Law).

14 Jurisdiction

In case any disputes arise out of or in connection with the exhibit contract, the Tokyo District Court in Japan shall have the sole and exclusive jurisdiction.
